

Call for proposals EACEA 02/2008EU-US ATLANTIS co-operation programme in Higher Education and Training

The selection process has been completed by the European side for the Call for proposals 2008 in the context of the EU-US ATLANTIS programme. As the Joint Selection Committee of the both parties have given their approval to the selection, advance information on the list of projects selected for funding can now be made available. The selection will become final once the American authorities have formally approved the list of projects proposed. The final selection results will be posted by the Executive Agency on this site as soon as this step has been completed during the coming days.
